Sep 2018  Two teenage boys were arrested in Kent for XRW terror offences.

National Action (also known as NS131 and Scottish Dawn) were proscribed by the Home Office on 16 Dec 2016. This means that membership and / or support of a proscribed organisation contravenes s11 and s12 of TACT 2000. National Action was disbanded by its members, and subsequently 'rebranded' as Vanguard Britannia and the System Resistance Network (SRN). Breakaway groups have formed from the SRN, notably the SonnenKrieg Division (SKD).

The group is virulently racist, anti-Semitic and homophobic. Its ideology promotes the idea that Britain will inevitably see a violent 'race war', which the group claims it will be an active part of. The group rejects democracy, is hostile to the British state and seeks to divide society by implicitly endorsing violence against ethnic minorities and perceived 'race traitors'

National Action's online propaganda material, disseminated via social media, frequently features extremely violent imagery and language. It condones and glorifies those who have used extreme violence for political or ideological ends. This includes tweets posted by the group in 2016, in connection with the murder of Jo Cox (which the prosecutor described as a terrorist act), stating "Only 649 MPs to go" and a photo of Thomas Mair with the caption "don't let this man's sacrifice go in vain" and "Jo Cox would have filled Yorkshire with more subhumans", as well as an image condoning and celebrating the terrorist attack on the Pulse nightclub in Orlando and another depicting a police officer's throat being slit. The images can reasonably be taken as inferring that these acts should be emulated and therefore amount to the unlawful glorification of terrorism.

Proscribed Terrorist Organisations, Home Office, Dec 2017

XRW groups such as National Action and the Atomwaffen Division have hosted training camps, under various guises, within the UK and abroad. These typically include combat training, and further indoctrination. Survival skills are a central key theme. Training is typically undertaken in wild country terrain – in the UK this would in areas similar to / and including the Brecon Beacons, Dartmoor, the New Forest, and the Peak District.

The XRW are known to organise music concerts that serve as social events, which reaffirm ideology. Known as the 'Oi!' music scene, this enables the small membership of XRW groups – such as Blood & Honour, Combat 18 etc – to come together. Membership of these groups is less fluid than the far right, which subsequently means that advertising of these events is tightly controlled, as is attendance.

The XRW are known to utilise mobile phone applications such as Discord, and Instagram to communicate, and share imagery / documents. Recent XRW operations have revealed multiple usernames, and significant use of these applications. The XRW have, on occasion, masked instructions on how to build devices etc within fiction. Possession of any material (literature / photos / instructions either on paper or online) that would assist terrorism is prohibited by s58 TACT 2000.

If you have any information concerning the XRW, please contact Counter Terrorism Policing via the Action Counters Terrorism website: <https://act.campaign.gov.uk/>
